enFrame Frameworks

Who Can Use enFrame Frameworks?

Our Partnership With enFrame

We're proud to announce that we are forming a new partnership with enFrame. enFrame is a company in the educational sector, providing frameworks to allow suppliers to avoid length tender processes. They have over 30 years of experience, assisting a comprehensive number of public sector establishments with procurement. This process saves considerable time and money for organisations.

This guide runs through who is eligible for enFrame Frameworks.

Education

Establishments in England and Wales that are maintained by the DoE (including MATs, School Academies, Free Schools, Universities and Colleges) are eligible for enFrame Frameworks. Other educational facilities that are applicable are Northern Irish Schools, Universities and Colleges; Scottish Schools, Universities and Colleges; higher or further educational fundable bodies within the meaning of section 6 of the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 2005.

Government

A variety of government departments are eligible for enFrame Frameworks, including Central Government Departments, Local Government and Public Corporations that can be accessed on the PSCG; Northern Irish Government Departments; Scottish Government, Parliament and Administrative Offices (subject to conditions).

Local Authorities

All local authorities in England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland are eligible for enFrame Frameworks.

NHS & Health

enFrame Frameworks is available for NHS England, Scotland and Wales. Health and Social Care in Northern Ireland is also eligible for Frameworks, along with hospices in the UK.

Police

Police force in England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland are eligible for enFrame Frameworks along with the Scottish Police Authority.

Housing Associations

Registered Social Landlords in England and Wales can access enFrame Frameworks, along with Scottish and Northern Irish Housing Associations.

...And More...

enFrame work with a wide range of public sector businesses.

Other public bodies, such as national public bodies, national parks, fire and rescue services, citizens advice, ombudsmen, commissions and more are eligible for enFrame Frameworks in the UK.
